

William Westerman

Written by Administrator

Wednesday, 04 April 2018 15:58 -

Dr. William Westerman is Assistant Professor in at New Jersey City University. He previously wo for Immigrant Traditional Artists at the Internatio Princeton, Villanova, Goucher College, the University College at Brooklyn College and the City College o Jersey Scholars Program and is a founding board m York, which promotes the human rights of detainee Folklife from the University of Pennsylvania, and set American Folklife Society. He has extensive museum of Plainfield and Drake House Museum in New Jersey and Killing Fields Memorial in Chicago, and curate Americas, the National Museum of American Jewish. He also served as Coordinator of Outreach to Inuit Foundation for the Arts. He has been involved with serving in a number of officer positions including Folklife. He has published articles on refugee studies and the politics of folk and traditional arts. Dr. Weste The Kennedy Dancers Folkart Dance Concert in 2017, he spoke to the audience regarding the religious, b the performances.